SENIOR LAW CLERK – OPEN UNTIL FILLED

Judge Ripken is accepting applications for a new Senior Law Clerk to start as soon as possible. There is no set term for this position. To qualify as a Senior Law Clerk (and for the SLC salary) for Judiciary HR purposes, candidates must have two years of legal experience and a JD from an ABA-accredited law school. The link to the posting is below. Applicants must submit materials through the Judiciary's HR portal, but are welcome to call Chambers or email Elizabeth Getz, elizabeth.getz@mdcourts.gov with questions.

CLERKSHIPS

The judicial clerkship positions for the 2025-2026 term have been filled. The application window for the 2026-2027 term will open in early 2025.

INTERNSHIPS

Judge Ripken welcomes interns throughout the school year and over the summer. These are unpaid or for-credit positions that allow students a first-hand opportunity to see and participate in the work of the Court. Interns are hired on a rolling basis. All internship positions for summer 2024 have been filled.
