

The image features the year '2019' in large, white, cut-out numerals. Each numeral is suspended by a thin white string that passes through a small circular hole at the top of the number. The background is a solid, vibrant blue. The numbers have a slight drop shadow, giving them a three-dimensional appearance as if they are floating or hanging in space.

MESSAGE FROM CHIEF JUDGE MARY ELLEN BARBERA

I am pleased to present the Maryland Judiciary's annual Statistical Abstract for fiscal year 2019. The abstract is a compilation of trial and appellate court caseload data and provides information regarding the volume, type, and disposition of cases handled by the courts. The data in this report represents a statistical compilation of the Judiciary's efforts to provide fair, efficient, and effective justice for the people of Maryland.

The Maryland Judiciary remains committed to providing the best possible service to all those with business before the courts. We work continuously to improve our systems and processes to meet the needs and expectations of the people of Maryland, both on a day to day basis and toward the high standard of the mandate of the Judicial Branch to provide justice under law. The Judiciary strives to work effectively and efficiently, while increasing transparency and providing access to Judiciary data and public information.

The 2019 Statistical Abstract is a direct result of the dedication and hard work of our judges, magistrates, clerks, case managers, administrative support staff, and many others. These dedicated professionals, whether on the bench, behind the counter, or behind the scenes, work hard to process and adjudicate cases, and provide the related necessary services to achieve timely justice.

I am grateful for their service. It is only through their collective effort that we are able to serve the people of Maryland.

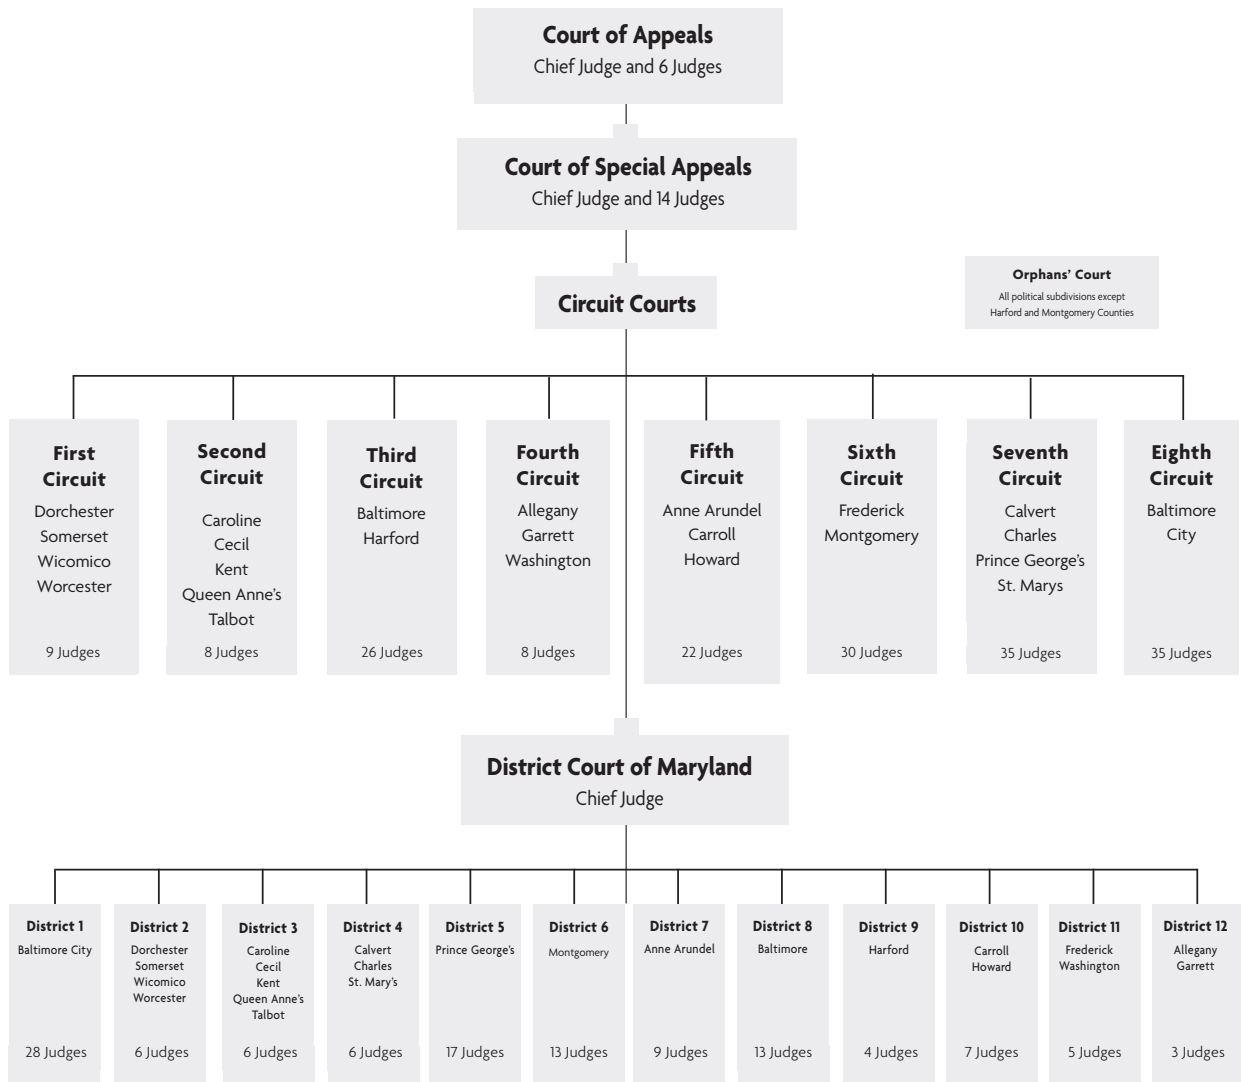

Mary Ellen Barbera

Chief Judge

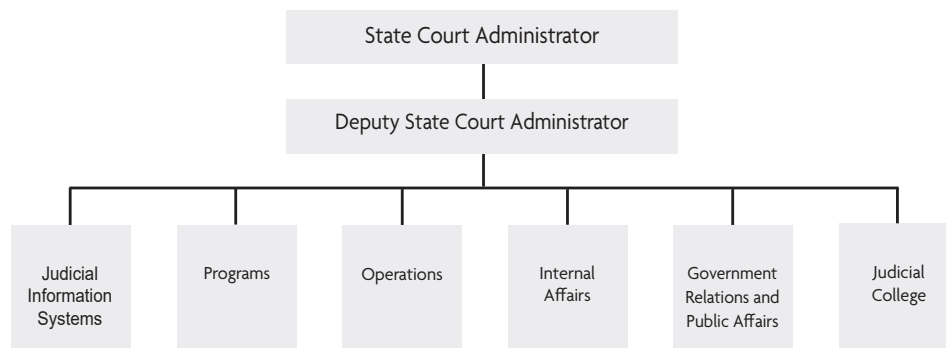

Court of Appeals of Maryland

COURT OF APPEALS

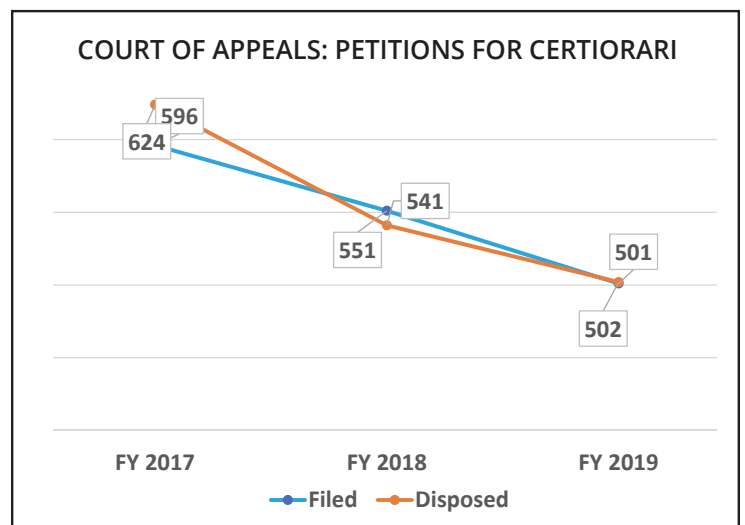

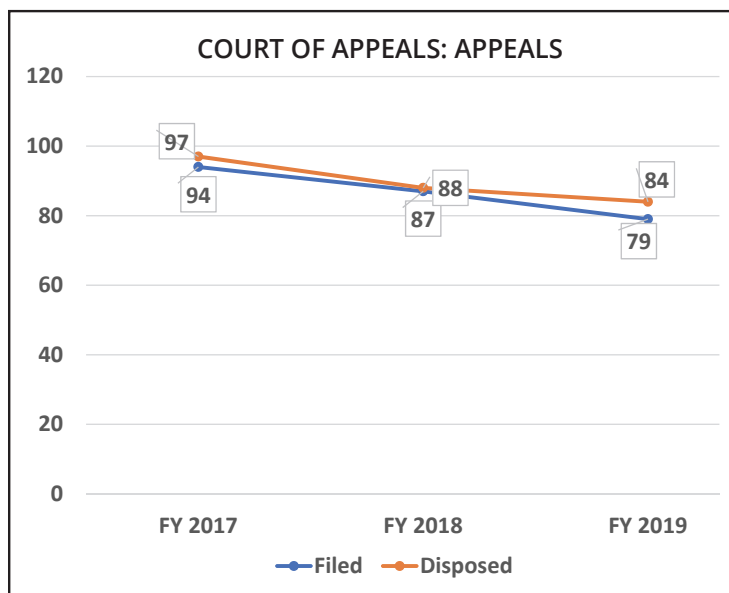

The Court of Appeals (Court) was created by the Constitution of 1776 and is the highest court in Maryland. Cases heard by the seven judges of the Court are, for the most part, selected through a discretionary review process. Petitions for certiorari come to the Court either before or after a case has been decided by the Court of Special Appeals. For most cases, the Court grants those petitions for certiorari it deems to be desirable and in the public interest.

The Court of Appeals also adopts rules of judicial administration, practice, and procedure; admits persons to the practice of law; answers certified questions of law; and conducts disciplinary proceedings involving members of the bench and bar.

The Court of Appeals sets cases on its regular docket from September 1st to August 31st, referred to as their "Term". Petition docket cases are set from March 1st to February 28th. The Court of Appeals typically hears cases from September through June. There are two periods of time that are used to measure data collected in the Maryland courts, "Term" and "Fiscal Year". The trial courts (District Court and the circuit courts) report data using the measurement of fiscal year (July 1 through June 30th). To provide consistency in reporting, Court of Appeals statistics are shown by fiscal year and by term.

The case processing goals adopted by the Court of Appeals provide that all cases argued or filed during a Term are to be decided before the Term's completion. This goal is similar to that of the U.S. Supreme Court and is part of the Judiciary's commitment to ensure timely adjudication for all those with business before the courts.

The following tables provide a statistical depiction of the Court's workload for Fiscal Year 2019 and for the 2018 Term (September 1, 2018 through August 31, 2019).

COURT OF SPECIAL APPEALS

The Court of Special Appeals (Court) was created in 1966. Cases heard by the Court include any reviewable judgment, decree, or order of other action of a circuit court. The Court also considers applications for leave to appeal in such cases as post conviction, habeas corpus matters involving denial of or excessive bail, inmate grievances, appeals from criminal guilty pleas, and violations of probation.

The Court includes 15 judges — one judge from each of the seven appellate judicial circuits and eight from the state at large. The judges are empowered to sit in panels of three. All judges may sit “en banc” to hear a case if the majority of the judges so order. The following tables provide statistics on the Court’s workload for Fiscal Year 2019.

CIRCUIT COURTS

In Maryland, each county and Baltimore City has a circuit court. Circuit courts are the trial courts of general jurisdiction and are the only courts empowered to hold jury trials. The 173 judges handle major civil cases, serious criminal matters, and all family matters including juvenile. Circuit court judges also decide appeals from the District Court and certain administrative agencies. Judicial magistrates primarily hear family and juvenile matters and make recommendations based on their findings to the judge.

In addition to judicial functions, these courts are responsible for recording the state's land record transactions, as well as issuing a number of business licenses. Civil marriage ceremonies are often performed by judges and clerks, and the clerks of circuit court also issue marriage licenses.

Circuit courts are grouped into eight geographical circuits, each with two or more counties, with the exception of the Eighth Circuit, which consists of Baltimore City. The smallest jurisdictions have one judge. Montgomery County, which handled the largest number of cases in Fiscal Year 2019, has 24 judgeships.

The following tables provide statistics on the workload in the circuit courts for Fiscal Year 2019.

In addition, cases were also closed due to individual respondents having aged out of the juvenile system.

Totals do not include dispositions on modified, reissued, or extended orders. A single case may have more than one dispositive event occur at the temporary and/or final protective order stages, but only the first dispositive event at each stage is recorded in this table.
2. Temporary and final protective orders denied/dismissed may also include orders withdrawn.

DISTRICT COURT

The District Court was created in 1970 by a constitutional amendment proposed by the legislature in 1969 and ratified in 1970. The District Court has jurisdiction over all property owner and tenant cases, replevin actions, motor vehicle violations, misdemeanors, certain felonies, and peace and protective orders. The District Court has exclusive jurisdiction in civil claims for $5,000 or less, and concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts in civil claims above $5,000 but less than $30,000. The District Court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit courts in criminal cases where the penalty may be confinement for 3 or more years or a fine of $2,500 or more. The District Court does not conduct jury trials. District Court Commissioners determine probable cause and establish bail and conditions of release and conduct public defender eligibility screening. Commissioners also issue interim peace and protective orders during hours when the court is closed.

The District Court is divided into 12 geographical districts, each containing one or more political subdivisions. There are 118 judgeships, including the Chief Judge. There are 34 District Court locations, with at least one judge resident in each county and in Baltimore City. The following tables provide statistics on the workload in the District Court for Fiscal Year 2019.
