

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
PROHIBITING THE USE OF COURTHOUSE FACILITIES
FOR PRIVATE, FOR-PROFIT PURPOSES
BY PERSONS OR ORGANIZATIONS

WHEREAS, on September 16, 1991, the Conference of Circuit Judges adopted a resolution that the use of courthouse facilities for adjudicatory-type purposes (e.g., arbitration, mediation, or conciliation) for private, for-profit purposes by any organization or individual shall not be permitted in any circuit court facility;

WHEREAS, the Chief Judge of the District Court concurs in this action as to any courthouse facilities under his administrative control;

WHEREAS, I endorse this resolution and believe it necessary to promulgate this Administrative Order.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Robert C. Murphy, Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals of Maryland, and Administrative Head of the Judicial System of the State, do hereby promulgate this 17th day of October, 1991, the following Administrative Order:

Use of courthouse facilities for adjudicatory-type purposes (e.g., arbitration, mediation, or conciliation) for private, for-profit purposes by any organization or individual shall not be permitted in any circuit court or District Court facility.

Robert C. Murphy, Chief Judge

Filed: October 17, 1991.

Clerk
Court of Appeals of Maryland

RECEIVED
1991 10 19

1991 10 19

10/17/91 - ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER - Prohibiting the Use of Courthouse Facilities for Private, For-Profit Purposes by Persons or Organizations.