

Robert H. Mason is retired from the Prince George's County Circuit Court, 7th Judicial Circuit. Judge Mason has served over 35 years on the Bench in both the District and Circuit Courts, both as an active and retired Judge. Judge Mason served as the Alternative Dispute Resolution Judge for the 5th and 7th Circuit Courts of Maryland, and has handled over 4000 ADR cases, mainly Family Law cases. Currently he sits as a Recalled Retired Judge and is an Instructor of Legal Studies at Prince George's Community College. Prior to being appointed to the Bench, he was an Assistant State's Attorney and a Master of Juvenile Causes in Prince George's County. Judge Mason served in the U.S. Marine Corps, and graduated from the University of Maryland and the University of Maryland School of Law. His honors include the Anselm Sodaro Judicial Civility Award from the Maryland State Bar Association. Judge Mason is especially proud of his 50 year marriage to his wife Joyce, and his 3 children and 6 grandchildren.
