

The Honorable Gale E. Rasin (Ret.) is retired from the Baltimore City Circuit Court, 8th Judicial Circuit, after seventeen years on the bench. During her term on the Circuit Court she presided over civil, criminal, and family dockets. She initiated the Mental Health Case Management Docket, and continues to preside over it as a retired judge. Before serving on the Circuit Court, Judge Rasin sat on the District Court for Baltimore City for twelve years. Currently Judge Rasin has a private practice in alternative dispute resolution. Prior to her appointment to the bench, Judge Rasin was the Director of the Medicaid Fraud Control Unit of the Office of the Attorney General of Maryland, where she investigated medical providers for fraud as well as abuse of vulnerable adults. She served as an associate at Piper and Marbury (now DLA Piper), handled family, estate, and guardianship matters, and appeared in trial and appellate courts. Judge Rasin was also an Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Maryland and prosecuted fraud and criminal tax matters. She also served as an Assistant State's Attorney for Anne Arundel County. Judge Rasin graduated from Duke University (magna cum laude) and Georgetown University Law Center. She has taught as an adjunct professor at University of Baltimore Law School and in the MBA program at Johns Hopkins University.
