Ladies and Gentlemen:

The following questions for the above referenced RFP were received by e-mail and are answered and posted for all prospective Offerors who received the RFP. The statements and interpretations contained in the following responses to questions are not binding on the Judiciary unless the RFP is expressly amended. Nothing in the Judiciary's response to these questions is to be construed as agreement to or acceptance by the Judiciary of any statement or interpretation on the part of the Offeror asking the question.

1. Do you have a quantity for the Rare Books, manuscripts and related items in the Special Collections Room?

Response: It is estimated to be approximately 1,500 volumes.

2. What is the budget for the project?

Response: Unknown.

3. Who was the previous appraiser?

Response: Second Story Books.

4. Are you still including the special collections library together with the fine arts collection as one contract, or are you putting the special collections library together with the print appraisal. In this way we would have one appraisal for artwork and antiques, and one appraisal for print collection and books, manuscripts etc.

Response: See Section 2.5.1 and 2.5.2.

Date Issued: May 24, 2012
Kelly Moore, Procurement Officer
