ORDER

After Kevron D. Walker’s petition for writ of certiorari was granted, the case was briefed and argued. In the Court’s July 28, 2023 opinion, the case was remanded to the circuit court for further proceedings. The Court retained jurisdiction over the matter and, after the proceedings on remand, the circuit court transmitted its written findings as directed in the opinion and the parties moved to supplement the record with the materials presented at the remand hearing. The parties also filed supplemental briefs.

Upon consideration of the briefs and supplemental briefs, the circuit court’s written findings, and the entire record as supplemented, it is this 8th day of May 2024, by the Supreme Court of Maryland,

ORDERED that the writ of certiorari and this case are dismissed as improvidently granted, and it is further,

ORDERED that costs are to be paid by Petitioner and the mandate is to issue forthwith.
