

Maryland Business and Technology (B&T) Judicial Bootcamp

June 8-9, 2023 | 9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Maryland Judicial Center, 187 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Annapolis, MD 21401

Topics will include:

- Course Introduction by Chief Justice Matthew Fader, Supreme Court of Maryland.
- Highlights of the Business Court programs in New York and North Carolina by Hon. Timothy Driscoll, Commercial Division, New York Supreme Court and Hon. Michael L. Robinson, North Carolina Business Court.

Honorable Steven J. Gould

Associate Justice | Supreme Court of Maryland

- Role of the trial judge in handling business disputes
- Duties of officers, directors, and others in control
- Statutory, contractual and judicially created remedies and their limits

Professor J.W. Verret

Associate Professor, Antonin Scalia School of Law | George Mason University

- How to Read Corporate and other Business Financial Statements
- Understanding Securities and Exchanges Commission Filings
- Decoding Principles of Business Valuation

Brett Ingerman, Esquire

DLA Piper

Expert Witnesses for trial judges after Rochkind v. Stevenson, State v. Matthews, and Parkway Neuroscience v. Katz.

- How to determine who is an expert?
- What constitutes an adequate factual basis for an opinion?
- How to assess the expert's methodology
- What is the gatekeeping function of the trial judge under Md. Rule 5-702 and Rochkind?

... and more!!

Who Should Attend:

- Current Maryland B&T Judges
- Senior Maryland B&T Judges
- Maryland Circuit Court and Appellate Judges interested in B&T cases

For More Information:

Contact Gray Barton at Richard.Barton@MDCourts.gov or 410-260-3617.

To Register:

Business and Technology Bootcamp Registration

Training presented by the Business and Technology Work Group,
Committee on Complex Litigation

Full agenda and presenter biographies will be distributed closer to the training dates

