No. 148

Sept. Term 2017

EMERGENCY BYPASS PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI AND MOTION TO STAY CIRCUIT COURT ACTION

Jane and John Doe, Curio Wellness, LLC, Doctor's Orders Maryland, LLC, Green Leaf Medical, LLC, Kind Therapeutics, USA, LLC, SunMed Growers, LLC, Maryland Wholesale Medical Cannabis Trade Association, and, the Coalition for Patient Medicinal Access, LLC ("Petitioners"), by the undersigned counsel, for an emergency motion to stay the circuit court's June 2, 2017, preliminary injunction hearing, which is proceeding over objection and in derogation of petitioners' due process, substantive, and procedural rights, and for a bypass petition for certiorari, state:

The lower court action is Alternative Medicine Maryland, LLC v. Natalie M. LaPrade Maryland Medical Cannabis Commission, et al., Case No. 24-C-16-005801 (Cir. Ct. Balt. City)(Willams, J.). Two appeals are pending in, but have not been decided by, the Court of Special Appeals. Briefs have not been filed. Doe v. Alternative Medicine Maryland, LLC, No. 40, Sep. Term 2017.

The decision of the circuit court did not adjudicate the rights and liabilities of all parties; however, it is final and appealable. Petitioners appeal denial of motions to intervene and to dissolve a temporary restraining order. The order sought to be reviewed is dated June 1, 2017. This is a dispute between innocent Petitioners, who played by the licensing rules, and Respondent, which did not. If a stay is not granted, innocent people and businesses will suffer irreparable harm.

A copy of the docket and the circuit court's order of June 1, 2017, is attached. The docket entry for that order is not available as of this date.

I. QUESTIONS PRESENTED FOR REVIEW

- A. Are petitioners entitled to participate in a lawsuit, including a preliminary injunction hearing, where the Plaintiff has expressly asked to invalidate their award, and any injunction would destroy their businesses, force them to lay off employees, cause substantial economic losses, and deprive some of them of needed cannabis therapy?
- B. Should the circuit court action be stayed pending resolution of the issue of indispensable parties, given that the plaintiff waited months or years to seek a preliminary injunction and has no likelihood of success on the merits?

II. STATEMENT OF CASE

The Maryland Medical Cannabis Act was enacted in 2014. On March 13, 2015, the Attorney General's office wrote a letter stating that the statutory command to actively seek racial and ethnic diversity was, as set forth in the prior bill review letter, unconstitutional and severed. On September 14, 2015, COMAR 16.62.08.05 was promulgated. In accord with that advice, race and ethnicity were removed as factors to be considered.

The licensing agency then advertised for applications. Approximately 145 applications for grower license were submitted on November 6, 2015. Pre-awards of cannabis grower licenses were made by the Maryland Medical Cannabis Commission (“MMCC”) on August 15, 2016, after a lengthy and rigorous selection process.

Plaintiff, Alternative Medicine Maryland, LLC (“AMM”), is a disappointed applicant for a cannabis grower license. On October 31, 2016, over a year after promulgation of the challenged Regulations, AMM filed suit against MMCC and its officers, challenging the licensure process for alleged failure to actively seek racial and ethnic diversity, and other issues not relevant here. On May 15, 2017, approximately seven months later, AMM sought an “emergency” hearing, a temporary restraining order, and a preliminary injunction based on alleged failure of MMCC to follow the governing statute.

Shortly after suit was filed, Petitioners timely moved to intervene on December 30, 2016. That motion was denied on February 23, 2017. When the TRO was issued on May 25, 2017, without notice to Petitioners, Petitioners immediately moved to dissolve it and intervene again. Petitioners requested a hearing on that motion, and the Rules provide that a hearing is mandatory. Petitioners filed approximately fifty affidavits; however, all of their motions were denied without a hearing, on June 1, 2017. Affidavits from growers, processors, and dispensaries described economic harms. Affidavits from patients described pain and suffering. A sample of the affidavits is filed with the accompanying motion to stay the circuit court proceedings.

The preliminary injunction hearing is set for June 2, 2017. Plaintiff AMM requests that the Commission be enjoined from awarding grower licenses. Petitioners have spent hundreds of millions dollars building facilities, obtaining permits, and hiring employees to meet the Regulatory mandate that they be operational by August 15, 2017. They are indeed ready, or almost ready, to open their doors. They will indisputably be directly impacted by any injunction and have filed affidavits to that effect.

Petitioners sought to raise substantive issues, such as that: the action is time-barred administrative mandamus; barred by laches; or, alternatively, it is limited to on-the-record review of an administrative agency decision under the substantial evidence standard. Petitioners who stand to lose millions, challenge the adequacy of the $100.00 TRO bond, set without any opportunity for them to be heard. Petitioners have not been allowed to present any such argument.

MMCC has objected to discovery that invades the deliberative process privilege. Its objection was overruled and its appeal is pending.

III. PARTICULARIZED STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR REVIEW

Patients in Maryland have waited many years for medical cannabis. The grower awardees have been compelled by COMAR 10.62.08.06.E to spend millions to build facilities, hire personnel, obtain permits, and take other actions to be ready to operate by August 15, 2017, or risk forfeiture of all they have done. There is a need for conclusive and rapid resolution of the questions presented to ameliorate pain and suffering and to provide economic certainty. Anything less puts seriously-ill citizens, cannabis growers, and their employees and others, at risk.

The General Assembly enacted a statute providing for licensing cultivation, processing, and dispensing of medical cannabis. Petitioners consist of two minor children, Jane and John Doe, who suffer from epileptic seizures and who need cannabis therapy, and a group of entities that received initial “Stage 1 Awards” of licenses to cultivate medical cannabis, and two trade associations.

The Does assert that denial of medical treatment is an irreparable injury. It is undisputed that they suffer painful and frightening seizures and that cannabis will assist them. Yet, their interests were subordinated to those of a disappointed license applicant. In fact, the Court pointed out at the May 25, 2017 hearing: "Notwithstanding the Defendant's argument concerning getting product to proposed patients in a timely manner[,] [t]his Court, again, is not involved with the timing of getting product to the proposed patients ... , because it is critical that there is a determination that our statutes are implemented in a way that is not discriminatory, or arbitrary, or capricious." Tr. of May 25, 2017 Hearing (emphasis added).

The remaining petitioners are the first step in the chain of medical cannabis. If there are no grower licenses, there is nothing to process or dispense. It is illegal to transport cannabis across State lines and there are no other available sources. Their risk is enormous. Their “burn rates,” i.e., monthly expenditures, are shown in the affidavits. Some exceed $150,000 per month. They have built facilities. They have hired employees who have quit their old jobs, moved here, bought houses, and who will be laid off, as set forth in multiple affidavits. Investors will suffer. Processors and dispensaries will fail, as will their employees. In short, the downstream impact of an injunction on innocent Marylanders will be substantial. Neither Petitioners, nor any of the downstream people or entities who will be impacted did anything wrong. They, unlike AMM, played by the rules.

The legal issues presented are important. AMM challenges a licensing decision of an administrative issue. It was made after a $2 million ranking process by a contractor retained by MMCC. That is a quasi-judicial administrative action. There is no statutory right of review and therefore review must be by administrative mandamus; however, AMM waited far too long to invoke that rule. Further, there are other key issues of administrative law, such as the application of laches, whether discovery, especially into the State's deliberative processes, is permitted, and whether review is on-the-record, if at all.

There are also important intervention issues. Here, Petitioners' rights vested on award, because COMAR 10.62.08.06.E required that they be ready for licensure in one year or risk forfeiture. Under such unique circumstances, they were denied the right to intervene.

IV. CONCISE STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS

There can be no doubt that Petitioners' rights are at issue. AMM's June 1, 2017, Bench Memorandum states: "It is Plaintiff's position that the entire licensing process, including but not limited to the issuance of pre-approvals and the final license issued to FowardGro was conducted in derogation of the law and was conducted in an arbitrary, capricious, and/or unconstitutional manner and that therefore, all preapprovals are invalid." [Emphasis added] In short, AMM (contrary to its prior representations to the court that led to denial of December 30, 2016, intervention motion) squarely and directly takes aim at the Movants' awards and seeks to invalidate them.

AMM deliberately timed its TRO motion at the worst possible time. Inspections of fully-constructed and nearly-finished facilities were ongoing. In fact, one license was issued. As the affidavit of Ms. Mather shows, by the approximate time of AMM's motion, 6,559 patients, 266 physicians, and 222 caregivers have registered for medical cannabis, and 164 pre-approvals have been issued to growers, processors and dispensaries. Moreover, as the Bronfein affidavit filed herewith demonstrates, Curio Wellness, LLC's final inspection is scheduled for May 31, 2017, sixteen days after AMM's motion and 608 days (approximately a year and eight months) after promulgation of the Regulations that did not include racial and ethnic diversity as a factor. Only after the wholly-innocent growers, processors, distributors, investors, employees, patient advocates, caregivers, and physicians, completed all of their mandated, expensive, and time-consuming preparatory work, did AMM seek "emergency" relief and say, in effect, "too bad" but we want a do-over.

AMM lacks any injury. Based on information and belief, AMM was not in line for an award. It is believed to have a very low "RESI ranking" and could not possibly receive an award. Further, it has failed to meet its burden to show that it is qualified for an award by obscuring its ranking, and by failing to file its application.

AMM posted a TRO bond of $100. AMM's affidavit asserts that it is capitalized at $10 million. Movants stand to lose many millions if enjoined. The bond is inadequate. The circuit court refused to hear Petitioners' argument on this point.

V. CONCISE ARGUMENT IN SUPPORT OF PETITION

This petition presents novel questions under a new statute. They have never been litigated. They are extraordinarily time-sensitive and a final resolution is needed at the earliest possible time.

AMM has knowingly sat in ambush. The Attorney General's bill review letter flagged the issue AMM complains of and his March 2015 advice reiterated it. The September 2015 regulations made it concrete. AMM, however, did not object when it applied for a license in November 2015. It did not object during the process. It did not receive an award in August 2016. It waited until the end of October 2016 to sue. It knew that the growers were building facilities and hiring personnel. But it waited until May 2017 to seek a TRO.

AMM deceived the circuit court. In its opposition to the December 30, 2016, motion to intervene it represented:

- “Nothing in the process will foreseeably change to the detriment of the pre-approved growers”;
- “The pre-approved growers will neither assume legal obligations nor lose legal rights”;
- “[T]he only party bound by the judgment in this case is the commission”;
- The TRO will effect only MMCC, not Petitioners, and the bond should be “de minimus.”

Apparently, however, the circuit court relied in part on them in denying Petitioners' motions to intervene, at a minimum. Now, however, AMM seeks to enjoin licensure and has even requested that an awarded license be rescinded. AMM has not done equity. None of these statements was accurate.

VI. REQUEST FOR STAY

Petitioners assert that they have a due process, statutory, and procedural right to sit at the table. The case is, however, proceeding without them. It is both unfair and a waste of resources to permit that to happen. Appellants' Emergency Motion for Injunction is incorporated herein.

VII. REFERENCE TO PERTINENT PROVISIONS

Md. Health Gen'l. Art. §13-3301, et seq.

COMAR 10.62.08.

Md. Rules 2-214, 15-503-505.

Wherefore, Petitioners request that this Court issue a writ of certiorari and grant the Emergency Motion for Injunction to stay the circuit court action that is proceeding in derogation of Petitioners' due process, substantive, and procedural rights.
