INSTRUCTIONS

Maryland Non-Resident Marriage License Application – Affidavit

A Maryland marriage license can be used - a marriage ceremony can take place - ONLY in the county where the marriage license is issued. The license must be obtained and presented to the official who will be performing the marriage ceremony before the ceremony may take place. It is the responsibility of the parties to know the Maryland county in which the ceremony site is located, and to obtain the marriage license from the Clerk of Circuit Court for that county or, if in Baltimore City, the Clerk of Circuit Court for Baltimore City. Please note that Baltimore City and Baltimore County are two separate and distinct political subdivisions, and a license issued by the Clerk of Circuit Court for one political subdivision cannot be used in the other political subdivision.

Who can apply for a Maryland marriage license using a Non-Resident Marriage License Application Affidavit (NRMLA Affidavit)? An applicant can use a NRMLA Affidavit if neither party to be married is a resident of the county/Baltimore City where the marriage ceremony will take place. If either party is a resident of the county/Baltimore City where the marriage ceremony will take place, the NRMLA Affidavit cannot be used - one of the parties will need to apply for the marriage license in person at the Clerk's Office in that county/Baltimore City.

How to apply using the NRMLA Affidavit? COMPLETE FORM ONLINE AND PRINT OUT (OR PRINT LEGIBLY)

1. Find out in which Maryland county/Baltimore City the marriage ceremony will take place. The license must be obtained from the Clerk of Circuit Court for that county/Baltimore City.
2. Contact the office of the Clerk of Circuit Court for the county/Baltimore City where the ceremony will take place to find out what the fee is, in that county, for a marriage license. Also, get the mailing address for that Clerk's office. Fees vary from county to county, and the parties will mail the completed NRMLA Affidavit, with the appropriate fee, to that office. Contact information for Clerks of Circuit Courts can be found here (<http://www.mdcourts.gov/circuit/index.html>).
3. A Party(s) takes the NRMLA Affidavit form (3 pages) to the office of a public official in the county, state, province or country where the party resides whose duties are comparable to that of a Maryland Clerk of Circuit Court. The clerk of any court, a Prothonotary, a Recorder of Deeds, or an official whose duty it is to issue marriage licenses, are examples of "comparable officials." A notary public is NOT a "comparable official."
4. Ask the "comparable official" if they will execute the form. This process is allowed by Maryland law, but Maryland law does not govern officials of other states or nations. Therefore, an official outside of Maryland is not required to, and may choose not to, provide this service. In that event, application will have to be made in person at the office of the Clerk of Circuit Court for the Maryland county in which the marriage ceremony will take place.
5. If the "comparable official" will provide the service, complete all information requested (all information is required by Maryland law, including social security number), but do not sign the form until the "comparable official" asks. It must be signed in the presence of the "comparable official."
6. The "comparable official" will ask the applicant(s) to sign the form, and will then complete the block at the bottom of the form, sign the form, and apply the Seal of their office. The "comparable official" will then return the signed form to the applicant(s) for mailing, along with the appropriate fee, to the Maryland Clerk of Circuit Court for the county/Baltimore City where the marriage ceremony will take place.
7. If a party to be married is under the age of 18, and a parent or guardian is providing consent, have the attached "Consent of Parent or Guardian" form completed and signed by the parent or guardian, and witnessed by a Notary Public.*
8. Once the NRMLA Affidavit form is fully executed, mail it, along with any Consent of Parent or Guardian forms, and a certified check or money order (personal checks are not accepted) in the appropriate amount (see item 2 above) for the marriage license fee, payable to Clerk of Circuit Court, to the Clerk of Circuit Court for the Maryland county/Baltimore City in which the marriage ceremony will take place. Marriage licenses in Maryland do not take effect until 2 days after the date an application is received in the office of the Clerk of Circuit Court, but are good for 6 months from that date. It is recommended that the applicant(s) mail the NRMLA affidavit at least three weeks before the wedding date, to allow time for delivery by the US Post Office, and for resolution of any problems the Clerk may have with the application. Be sure to include a phone number for at least one of the parties, so the clerk can contact the parties if there are any problems with the application, or if additional information is required.
9. Once the NRMLA Affidavit is processed, the marriage license will be mailed or held for pick up according to the applicant's instructions on the form.

* NOTE: In some Maryland counties, if either party is under 18 years of age, the license will not be mailed, and must be picked up at the clerk's office. Additional documentation (e.g.: birth certificate; guardianship order) may be required to show proof that the consenting person is in fact a parent or guardian of the minor party. Contact the Clerk's office in advance to find out what additional documentation, if any, will be required.

Maryland marriage laws can be found in the Annotated Code of Maryland, Family Law Article, Title 2.
