

Baltimore Beltway West

Public Transit Information

The new Catonsville District Court is accessible to commuters via the 78 bus line, which is approximately two blocks from the courthouse at the intersection of Johnnycake Rd. and North Rolling Rd.

For information about public transportation routes, including buses, the subway, and light rail, contact the Maryland Transit Administration's (MTA) Transit Information Contact Center at 410-539-5000 or toll-free at 1-866-RIDE-MTA (1-866-743-3682), Monday through Friday, 6 a.m. – 7 p.m.

View all MTA commuter schedules online at www.mta.maryland.gov/schedule.

Visit MTA online at www.mta.maryland.gov/contact-mta.

MDOT MTA also has new smartphone apps that can help with trip planning and fares. Receive assistance with trip planning and get real-time bus tracking.

If you sign up for MDOT MTA's CharmPass, you can transfer between buses for free. For more information on both apps, please go to the following MDOT MTA webpages:

<https://www.mta.maryland.gov/transit>

<https://www.mta.maryland.gov/charmpass>

