Finding Maryland Legal Forms

Introductions

The Frontlines Workgroup includes representatives from the Thurgood Marshall State Law Library, Maryland Court and County Law Libraries, the Maryland Access to Justice Commission, and the Access to Justice Department of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Instructors for each course will vary but the information provided is based on the core curriculum of the ongoing Frontlines Project.

Our instructors today include...

Catherine McGuire, Thurgood Marshall State Law Library
Joy Hollerbach, Thurgood Marshall State Law Library
Audrey Dingler, Thurgood Marshall State Law Library
Vickie Yiannoulou, Prince George's County Circuit Court Law Library

Learning Objectives

Understand what “form” might mean in legal reference

Identify and employ best resources for locating information about, templates for, and/or official forms for legal actions

Identify appropriate guidance to help completion of legal forms and documents

The Question:

I need a form...

- ...to get a divorce
- ...to write a will
- ...to change my alimony
- ...to remove my record
- ...to file a motion in my case
- ...to incorporate a business

People think there's a form for every legal action.

This is not true.

Self-Assessment

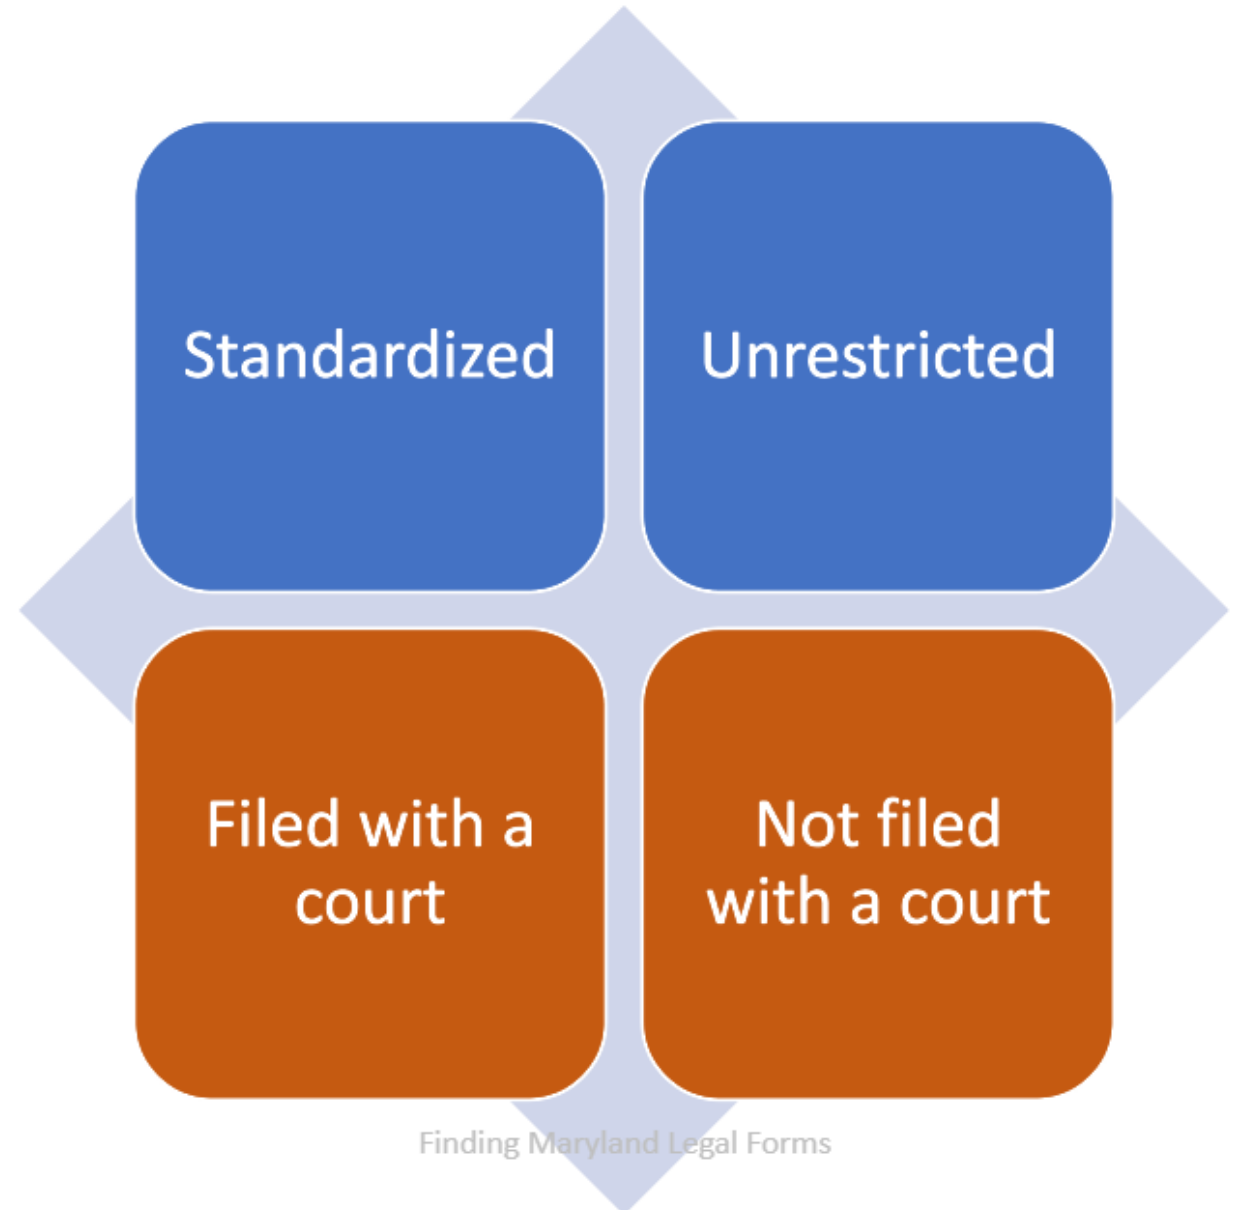

What is your level of comfort with requests for legal forms?

1. I'm a beginner, I haven't had any questions yet about legal forms.

2. I've had questions about legal forms a few times. I want to learn more.

3. I feel confident but would like to brush up on my skills.

Maryland Code and Laws of Maryland

Maryland statutes are passed by the General Assembly, Maryland's legislative body. The Laws of the State of Maryland is a chronological collection of laws passed by the General Assembly.

The Maryland Code is a compilation of the statutes currently in effect and is generally organized by subject (e.g., Criminal Law Article, Family Law Article).

The Maryland House and Senate Journals are records of the proceedings of the Maryland House of Delegates and the Maryland Senate Sessions.
