

Maryland Circuit Courts

Health Care Malpractice Claims ADR Program Application

Pursuant to Maryland Courts and Judicial Proceedings (“CJ”) Code Ann., §3-2A-06C, the Court is required to order parties in health care malpractice cases to engage in alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”). In developing a cadre of experienced ADR Providers to implement this statute, the Conference of Circuit Judges believes it is imperative that the ADR Providers assigned by the Court demonstrate experience in medical malpractice or comparable complex civil cases in addition to having advanced ADR skills. This application will assist the Court in identifying ADR Providers for all ADR processes designated in CJ §3-2A-06C, as defined in Title 17 of the Maryland Rules. ADR Providers should only apply for those services for which they are qualified.

ADR Process Definitions

Mediation

As defined in Maryland Rule 17-102(g), "mediation" means a process in which the parties work with one or more impartial mediators who, without providing legal advice, assist the parties in reaching their own voluntary agreement for the resolution of the dispute or issues in the dispute.

Neutral Case Evaluation

As defined in Maryland Rule 17-102(i), "neutral case evaluation" means a process in which (1) the parties, their attorneys, or both appear before an impartial evaluator and present in summary fashion the evidence and arguments supporting their respective positions, and (2) the evaluator renders an evaluation of their positions and an opinion as to the likely outcome of the litigation.

Neutral Fact Finding

As defined in Maryland Rule 17-102(g), "neutral fact-finding" means a process in which (1) the parties, their attorneys, or both appear before an impartial individual and present evidence and arguments supporting their respective positions as to particular disputed factual issues, and (2) the individual makes findings of fact as to those issues that are not binding unless the parties agree otherwise in writing.

Settlement Conference Facilitation

As defined in Maryland Rule 17-102 (l), "settlement conference" means a conference at which the parties, their attorneys, or both appear before an impartial individual to discuss the issues and positions of the parties in an attempt to agree on a resolution of all or part of the dispute by means other than trial. A settlement conference may include neutral case evaluation and neutral fact finding, and the impartial individual may recommend terms of an agreement.

Fees and additional information for court selected ADR Providers

If an ADR Provider is designated by the Court from its list for this program, fees for that ADR Provider will be billed at the rate of $250/hour for all services on an assigned case. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties or ordered by the Court, those costs shall be divided equally between the parties. The parties are free to engage an ADR provider not on the Court's list, and in such case, the ADR Provider will be paid at the rate negotiated by the parties. ADR Providers will be required to conduct ADR sessions in the jurisdiction where the litigation is pending.

Being listed for designation as a health care malpractice claims ADR Provider for health care malpractice cases does not guarantee that you will receive any case referrals from the circuit court nor does it establish court employee status for the provider. Please read Maryland Rules, Title 17, containing circuit court Rules applicable to alternative dispute resolution and to being listed for designation as a mediator, neutral case evaluator, neutral fact finder, or settlement conference facilitator.

If I am designated as a Health Care Malpractice Claims mediator, neutral case evaluator, neutral fact finder, and/or settlement conference facilitator, I give my permission to have such designation(s) listed, along with my contact information, on a court-based website. I understand that such a listing is not an endorsement of my skills and abilities, nor will it create an employment relationship with any court. I also understand that checking either yes or no below has no bearing on the decision of my designation.
