NDOKLEY PETER ENOW

v.

STATE OF MARYLAND

Wells, C.J.,
Leahy,
Kehoe, Christopher B.
(Senior Judge, Specially Assigned),

JJ.

PER CURIAM

Filed: October 29, 2025

*This is a per curiam opinion. Under Rule 1-104, the opinion is not precedent within the rule of stare decisis, nor may it be cited as persuasive authority.

Pursuant to an indictment filed on July 31, 2014, in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, Ndokley Peter Enow, appellant, was charged with solicitation to commit first-degree murder and solicitation to commit first-degree assault. The charges arose after Mr. Enow sought to hire someone to kill or seriously maim his ex-wife. The solicitation was recorded by an undercover police officer. Believing he was a hitman, Mr. Enow gave the officer a deposit for the job.

On January 9, 2015, Mr. Enow appeared with counsel in court and pursuant to a plea agreement with the State, entered a plea of guilty to solicitation to commit first-degree murder. The court sentenced him in accordance with the plea agreement to 40 years' imprisonment, all but 20 years suspended, to be followed by a five-year term of supervised probation. Mr. Enow, representing himself, filed an application for leave to appeal, which this Court denied. Subsequent petitions he filed pro se, including a petition for post-conviction relief, three petitions for a writ of actual innocence, a petition for habeas relief, and a motion to correct an illegal sentence, have all been denied.

On March 18, 2025, Mr. Enow filed a motion to dismiss the indictment, claiming that his right to a speedy trial had been violated. The circuit court denied the motion, a ruling Mr. Enow appeals. We shall dismiss the appeal. Mr. Enow cites no authority that would permit him to file a motion to dismiss an indictment ten years after his conviction.

APPEAL DISMISSED. COSTS TO BE PAID BY APPELLANT.
