*This is a per curiam opinion. Under Rule 1-104, the opinion is not precedent within the rule of stare decisis, nor may it be cited as persuasive authority.

In December 2024, Willie Fred Lockett, appellant, filed a request with the Circuit Court for Prince George’s County seeking “grand jury transcripts” related to his case. The court treated the request as a motion and denied it as moot, after finding that no grand jury testimony had been taken. Mr. Lockett, who is self-represented, appeals that decision.

His argument on appeal is that the indictment, filed on February 8, 2018, was “illegal” because it was not “signed by a member of the Grand Jury” and thus, the trial court lacked jurisdiction over the case. As the State points out, however, the circuit court record reflects that the indictment was in fact signed by the grand jury foreperson. Accordingly, we perceive no error in the court’s judgment.
